

I'm not good at Japanese... Do I have a chance to work in Japan?

When should I start job-hunting?

I want to be a researcher in a Japanese company

What do companies value the most when recruiting?

Strategy for a Successful Job Hunting How to Work in Japan for International Students

大学生ランキング・理系 (1位~10位)

1 トヨタ自動車
466 Point 前年: 1位

2 ソニー
363 Point 前年: 4位

3 東日本旅客鉄道
343 Point 前年: 2位

4 サントリーグループ
303 Point 前年: 24位

5 パナソニック
302 Point 前年: 10位

Only 35% of international students find a job in Japan because Japanese job hunting has an obscure schedule, evaluation criteria and interview style, etc. However there are many companies that require college graduates with a scientific background and proper preparations will increase the likelihood of hiring. Proper preparations will depend on the application and recommendation.

Visiting Lecturer | Yuki Iida
(Japan Association for Promotion of Internationalization)

Friday, Nov. 8, 2019

18:00 - 20:00

Language | English

Lecture Hall, 2F Engineering Center Hall
Aobayama Campus, Tohoku University

TALK

1

Basic information on job hunting in Japan for science graduate students

TALK

2

Measure for Foreign company Japanese corporations
Measure for Japanese companies

Registration

Please visit the URL below or QR code:
https://datentre.ihe.tohoku.ac.jp/?page_id=1530

■ Contact: Office for DATEntre

Email : datentre@grp.tohoku.ac.jp

TEL : 022-795-4994

Website : <https://datentre.ihe.tohoku.ac.jp>

